BANKSIDE VENUES.

Why Bankside?

-  Central London location on the River Thames
-  Proximity to major rail hubs of London Bridge and Waterloo
-  A thriving and vibrant area – top cultural hub
-  19 venues of varying size and budget to choose from
-  The Historic West End of London
-  2,000 hotel rooms close-by

Whether you're planning a meeting, conference, launch party or wedding, Bankside Venues has something for everyone. With stunning views across the River Thames over to St Paul's and hidden gems in cobbled medieval streets or rustic converted Victorian railway viaducts and wharves, Bankside Venues will wow your guests and add that extra something to your event.

a stone's throw...

Bankside Venues is a group of 19 central London venues located on the River Thames, just a bridge across from The City of London and within close proximity to major transport hubs including London Bridge, Blackfriars and Waterloo. Alternatively, the Thames side location provides a convenient and scenic route for river travel.

Bankside is at the heart of London's thriving South Bank and Bankside Cultural Quarter with attractions including Tate Modern, Shakespeare's Globe and Borough Market to keep your guests entertained.

The variety of venues across Bankside offers a real range and versatility in type, location and budget. You can hold a team meeting at Bankside Community Space or a drinks party at Jerwood Space, an elegant banquet at Glaziers Hall or a wine tasting tour and conference at Vinopolis. Alternatively there's Shakespeare's Globe for a truly theatrical event or Prospero House for a day's training.
