Peyton Events

As one of London's foremost event caterers, we believe the cornerstone of great food is the quality of the ingredients and our chefs value the importance of fresh, carefully sourced produce from small independent producers.

With 'The Great British Menu' judge and restaurateur Oliver Peyton as Creative Director, we bring a superior level of creativity to all events that we cater for, complemented by imaginative food and impeccable service.

We deliver memorable occasions across a whole host of landmark London locations, from museums and galleries to royal parks and palaces. We are confident that the innovative catering and flawless service offered by our experienced and knowledgeable events team will surpass all expectations.

We would be thrilled to work with you on making your next event at The Tower Room one to remember.
